

SCOOP

October 2023

Message from the PRESIDENT & PATRON

Dear Readers,

As we reflect on the events of the past month, October was a time of growth and engagement within our institute. Our students participated in Student Council Elections, showcasing their dedication to our institution's progress.

A significant highlight of the month was our Pink Ribbon Awareness Session, which included a Bake Sale Fundraising event. We came together to raise awareness about Breast Cancer, a cause that holds a special place in our hearts.

Our students and staff actively participated in informative discussions and engaged in activities that emphasized the importance of early detection and support for those affected by this disease. The Bake Sale added a sweet touch to our efforts, with the proceeds contributing to the cause. It was heartening to witness the unity and support from our community in this endeavor.

Additionally, workshops were conducted in collaboration with Soorty Enterprises throughout the month, providing our students with practical insights into the textile industry, fostering their creative and technical abilities.

As we move forward, let us carry the lessons and experiences of October with us. Our university is not only a place for academic growth but also a platform for personal development and societal engagement.

Meanwhile Happy Reading!

Humayun Zafar, President

Message from the

EDITOR IN CHIEF

Greetings Esteemed Readers,

The pages of our academic journey turn once more as we bid adieu to the month of October, a time of growth and active participation within our esteemed institution. Throughout this month, our students showcased unwavering dedication by actively engaging in the various events and workshop organized at the university.

Among the notable highlights of October, the Pink Ribbon Awareness Session stands out prominently. This event, which included a heartwarming Bake Sale Fundraiser, saw our community come together in support of Breast Cancer Awareness. It's a cause close to our hearts, and the event served as a platform for enlightening discussions, activities, and the sweet satisfaction of contributing to the cause through the Bake Sale.

Furthermore, our academic landscape was enriched by two engaging workshops. The first took place at Soorty Enterprises, offering valuable insights into the textile industry. It equipped our students with practical knowledge for their future careers. The second, a Hand Embellishment Workshop, provided a creative and technical skillset to nurture the holistic development of our students. Our institution is more than just a place for academic growth; it is a platform for personal development and community engagement.

SOORTY ENTERPRISE WORKSHOP

15th, 22nd & 31st October 2023

Our students at the Textile Institute of Pakistan embarked on a dynamic learning journey through a series of enlightening workshops hosted at Soorty Enterprises. These workshops were orchestrated by Mr. Arsalan Alam, our faculty member and Program Coordinator of the Apparel Manufacturing and Design Department. The aim was to equip our students with practical insights into the textile industry.

The workshops spanned key aspects of textile production, with day one dedicated to precision cutting, day two focusing on impeccable stitching, and day three emphasizing the art of finishing. These workshops allowed our students to delve into the intricacies of these critical phases of textile production, equipping them with hands-on experience and practical knowledge.

In addition to these hands-on workshops, our students also had the privilege of participating in a dedicated session centered on supply chain management within the textile industry. This workshop provided a holistic understanding of the industry's functioning, helping our students grasp the intricacies of sourcing, production, and distribution in the textile sector. Understanding the entire supply chain process was invaluable, highlighting the importance of efficient management and organization in ensuring a smooth flow of textiles from concept to consumer.

These workshops not only enriched our students' academic journey but also underscored our commitment to providing them with the tools and insights essential for success in the textile industry. They offered a real-world learning experience, preparing our students to excel in the dynamic and competitive world of textiles.
