

Date: 05.04.2023

Subject: Implementation Plan, Actions Taken/Compliance &amp; Progress against AT Findings for TMM Program for the Year 2022-23 in response to AT Findings/Recommendations fby the internal &amp; external AT members
Program: Textile Management and Marketing (TMM)
Recommendations:	Implementation Plan/Action Taken/Corrections/Justifications
1. Some of the faculty's background and expertise are not relevant to the courses that are being delivered.	TIP believes that faculty members have relevant background and expertise in the courses that align with the course content they are currently teaching.
2. As part of the concerns. The students are not prepared that fosters their analytical skills and ability to comprehend the ongoing and upcoming Global Business and Management Matrix in Textile and Fashion.	TIP continuously reviews and revises the curriculum to include specific learning objectives that center on developing analytical skills and comprehending the global business and management aspects of the textile and fashion industry. TIP is of the opinion that students who lack preparation in developing analytical skills and comprehending the global business and management matrix in the textile and fashion industry cannot compete in the field.

Director QEC

Dean

President

